Art Loves Design

Miami Design District
2nd Avenue and 40th Street, Miami

Dacra's Art Loves Design Maps will guide you through the night's and week's many performances and exhibitions while you enjoy live music, food and unexpected surprises at every turn. That evening two city blocks in the Design District will be closed for the public to enjoy the various art exhibitions, galleries and design showrooms, music and cocktails. One of this year's highlights will be the opening at the Moore Space on the evening of December 4 of a project curated by Hans Ulrich Obrist. The Moore Space, located on the second floor of the historic Moore Building is a nonprofit art space founded in 2001 by Rosa de la Cruz together with Ivelin and Craig Robins. This experimental art space, directed by Silvia Karman Cubiña, invites guest curators as an integral part of its exhibition program. Also opening on December 4 will be a new collaborative work by John Baldessari, Lawrence Weiner and Julião Sarmento. Rirkrit Tiravanija will create a new performance piece that evening. Jeffrey Deitch will present a Hip Hop Baroque chapel created by the artist Kehinde Wiley. The Guadalajara ceramic factory of José Noé Suro will present an exhibition curated by Patrick Charpenel of works produced by the factory for important contemporary artists. In addition to these exhibitions there will be other exhibitions of Miami artists throughout the Design District and the Buenos Aires based store, Puro Diseño Argentino, will showcase the works of 125 leading Argentine designers and artisans. All these exhibitions and the Design District showrooms will be open throughout the week of Art Basel Miami Beach.
